A little about the corner of the world we call home...

Borehamwood is a lively town in Hertfordshire, located just 12 miles northwest of Central London. Known for its rich history in film and television, it's home to Elstree Studios, where iconic shows and movies have been filmed. Borehamwood offers a blend of suburban comfort with easy access to the excitement of the capital. There are plenty of local amenities, from bustling shopping areas to parks like Aberford Park, perfect for families and those looking to enjoy some outdoor space. The town also boasts a selection of restaurants, cafés, and leisure activities, such as the Reel Cinema and the Venue Leisure Centre.

Commuting from Borehamwood to London is simple and convenient. Elstree & Borehamwood station is on the Thameslink line, offering direct trains to St Pancras International in around 20 minutes, making it ideal for professionals working in the city. With frequent train services, it's easy to reach major London hubs, as well as other destinations along the Thameslink route. Its close proximity to the M25 and A1 also makes Borehamwood well-connected for drivers. This combination of excellent transport links and a thriving community makes it a popular choice for those looking for the best of both worlds – suburban peace with quick access to London.
