Thunderdell is a truly exceptional residence, meticulously renovated to the highest standards and reimagined as a statement of contemporary luxury. With bespoke craftsmanship, elegant interiors, and light-filled living spaces, this home offers the perfect balance of modern sophistication and timeless charm.

From the moment you step into the grand reception hall – with its striking chequerboard tiles, sweeping turned staircase, and glass doors framing views of the gardens – you are welcomed into a home designed for both refined living and effortless entertaining.

The ground floor flows seamlessly through a series of versatile reception rooms, including a stylish study, a characterful games room with exposed timber beams, and a cosy TV snug. A private den provides a tucked-away retreat, while the spectacular open-plan kitchen, dining, and reception space forms the vibrant heart of the home. Bathed in natural light from full-height glazing and dramatic skylights, this expansive living space features garden vistas, a woodburning stove, and a beautifully designed kitchen with bespoke cabinetry, a statement island, and premium integrated appliances, including four ovens – perfect for the culinary enthusiast.

Also on this level is a well-appointed guest suite with en suite shower room and its own private entrance, ideal as a self-contained annexe for family or visitors.

Upstairs, the galleried landing reveals five further double bedrooms, each finished with style and comfort in mind. The showpiece principal suite offers a private balcony overlooking the gardens, a luxurious freestanding bathtub, and a sleek en suite shower room. Two further bedrooms benefit from en suite bathrooms, while a contemporary family shower room serves the remaining bedrooms.

For added flexibility, a detached studio provides an open-plan space with provision for kitchen and bathroom facilities – perfect as a home office, gym, or guest accommodation.

Set in an idyllic position surrounded by woodland and backing onto the prestigious Ashridge Golf Course, Thunderdell enjoys complete privacy and tranquillity. A sweeping gravel driveway leads to extensive parking and a detached double garage with loft storage. Additional outbuildings include log stores, a greenhouse, and fruit cages for those with a passion for homegrown produce. The south-facing gardens are simply stunning, with expansive lawns, wildflower meadows, woodland borders, and a full-size tennis court, all designed to make the most of the glorious rural setting.

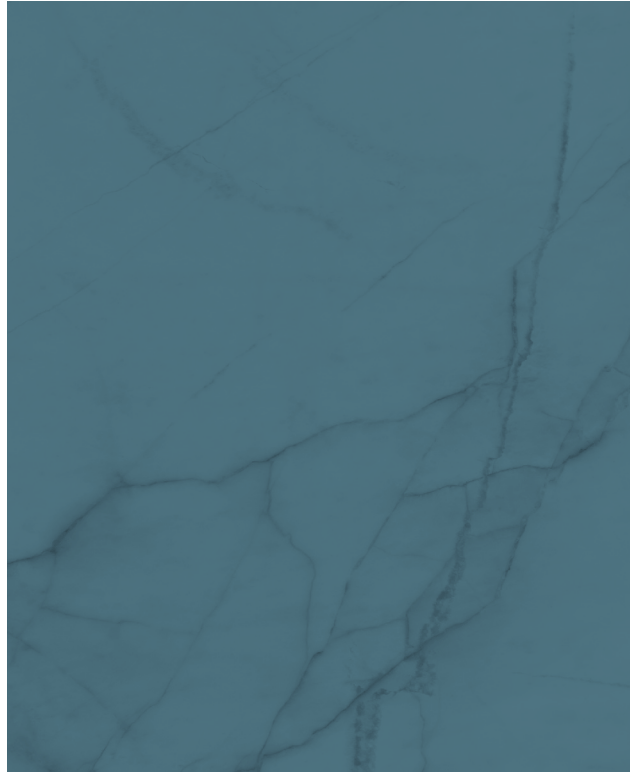

LOCATION

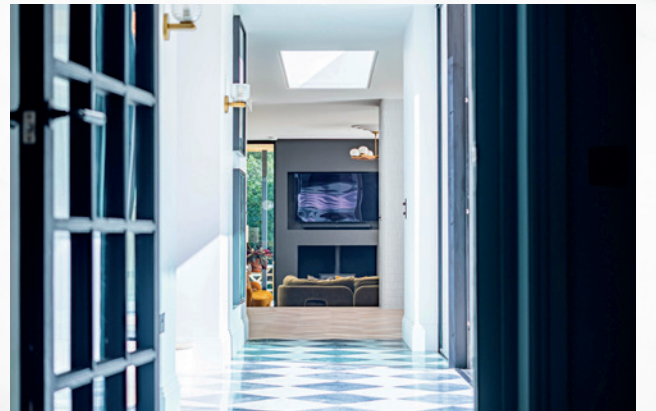

Located near the charming villages of Ringshall and Little Gaddesden, and just four miles from the historic market town of Berkhamsted, the property combines country living with convenience. Berkhamsted offers an array of boutique shops, acclaimed restaurants, and everyday amenities, while the surrounding Chiltern Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty provides endless opportunities for walking, riding, and exploring, including the famous Ashridge Estate and Ivinghoe Beacon.

For commuters, Berkhamsted station offers direct rail services to London Euston in just 40 minutes, while the M1 is within easy reach – making Thunderdell not only a luxurious retreat, but also a perfectly connected one.
